

PORTABLE HARDNESS TESTER (3 in 1)

Origin: Japan, West European, USA

| Sr. | Defect Details                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Qty |
|-----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1.  | Portable Hardness Tester Hardness Scale: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• HRA</li><li>• HRB</li><li>• HRC</li><li>• HV</li><li>• HB</li><li>• HL</li><li>• HS</li></ul> Portable Harness Tester must include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Hardness Tester must be capable of All-in-one operation (Leeb hardness testing, Portable Rockwell Hardness testing and UCI Hardness testing)</li><li>• Leeb probes (D/DC, DL, S, E, G &amp; C)</li><li>• Portable Rockwell probe</li><li>• UCI (Ultrasonic Contact Impedance Method) probes</li></ul> Features Required: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• High Accuracy</li><li>• Custom Conversions</li><li>• Combined Methods (Leeb, Portable Rockwell &amp; UCI)</li><li>• Rugged Housing</li><li>• High Capacity Battery</li><li>• Large Built-in touch Screen</li><li>• Support Rings for different surface's geometries</li></ul> Calibration Blocks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Calibration blocks for each scale with calibration certificate (Qty 02 each scale)</li></ul> | 01  |